NELSON SADLER - GARRETT SADLER DEED OF TRUST

This paper is the property of Mrs. Laura B. (Sadler) McCawley of New Bethel, Jackson County, Tennessee.

Copied by Maude McGlasson, Gainesboro, Tennessee - 1937.

I, Nelson Sadler of the County of Jackson and State of Tennessee, have this day bargained and sold and do hereby transfer and convey to Garrett Sadler of said county and state & his heirs and assigns forever for the sum of five dollars to me paid and the other considerations hereinafter mentioned a tract of land lying in said county of Jackson and State of Tennessee in civil district No. 2, on the North side of Cumberland river, and bounded as follows, beginning at a poplar standing on the north bank of cumberland river called Roberts corner the South East corner of Phillip Ray's tract running thence up Cumberland river with its various meanders, North 50° East one hundred and thirteen poles to a stake on the bank of said river thence north 69° East eighty eight poles to a stake on the bank of said river thence North 44° East with the meanders of said river forty one poles to a stake thence North 64° East with the meanders of said river thirty two poles to a large sycamore the south west corner of Richard T. Brooks' tract thence North 31° East with Brooks west boundary line one hundred and twenty six poles to a stake Brooks' north west corner of his 62 acre tract thence North 83° west with said Brooks' south boundary line in all one hundred and sixty poles to two pin oak trees said Brooks' corner, thence South two hundred and sixty six poles to the beginning, containing two hundred and seventeen acres.

Also one other tract of land lying in said county of Jackson and State of Tennessee and in civil district No. 2. containing by investigations eighty acres - and bounded as follows: beginning at a poplar the North East Corner of a forty acre tract of land originally claimed by James D. Henly, thence down the hill to Trace creek where the road crosses the same between the fields of Robert Richmond and said Nelson Sadler: thence up said creek a small distance to the mouth of a small branch on the west side of said creek thence up the point a straight line to a large pin oak on the top of the point marked corner thence up said point with a marked line to a Beech in Phillip Ray's North boundary line thence East with said line to a beech and poplar thence continuing with said line to the corner of said tract at Trace creek in Moore's East boundary line thence North with said line sixty poles to an iron wood beech and white oak thence North 28° West forty poles to a poplar the beginning.

To have and to hold the same to the said Garret Sadler and his heirs and assigns forever. I do covenant with the said Garret Sadler that I am lawfully seized of said land, have a good right to convey it and that the same is unencumbered. I do futher covenant and bind myself, my heirs and representatives to warrant and forever defend the title to said land and every part thereof to the said Garret Sadler his heirs and assigns against the lawful claims of all persons whatsoever. But this deed is made for the following uses and trusts and for no other purpose, that is to say I am indebted to Henry Sadler as executor of Prudence Thompson dec'd. in the sum of fifty five dollars with interest on the same from the 25 day of December next, by note executed by myself and John Scanland, my security under seal due on the 25 day of December next, also to said Henry Sadler as executor as aforesaid in the futher sum of Seven hundred and thirty four dollars and fifty two and three fourth cents, with interest on the same from the 26 day of December 1839, by note executed to said Prudence Thompson in her life time under seal by me and Benjamin Scanland, and Henry Sadler as my securities on the 25 day of December 1839 due one day after date. I am also indebted as security for John Scanland to David Griffith and Lindsay B. Griffith, administrator of Jonas Griffith dec'd. for the use of Leroy B. Settle and Sam. E. Stone who are holders of the note by which same is secured in the sum one hundred and fifty four dollars with interest from September 20, 1840, due by note under seal executed by said John Scanland and myself dated 20 day of September 1839 and due twelve months after date. And I am desirous to secure the payment of said several sums of money. Now if I should pay said several sums of money with interest thereon to said Henry Sadler and to said Leroy B. Settle and Sam E. Stone, respectively, on or before the 27th. day of November 1845, then this deed to be void but if I should not, then the said Garret Sadler as trustee after giving forty days notice in writing at the court house door of said County and at the Election ground of Civil district No. 2, and at three other pubblick places in said county may expose said land to pubblick sale and sell it to the highest bidder for cash and appropiate the proceeds first to the payment of the necessary expenses and costs, secondly to the satisfaction of said debts to said Henry Sadler - and said Leroy B. Settle & Sam E. Stone above mentioned with interest on the same, and thereby to pay the balance if any to me.

This 27 day of November 1844, the words & "his heirs and assigns forever" on the first page and the words "dated 20th day of September 1839 and due 12 months after date" on the 2nd. page entered in land this deed was executed.
